

A Curated Journey: In Collaboration with Zambezi Sands, Sanctuary Mandela
& Boschendal

LET US CREATE YOUR DREAM ITINERARY

Overview

The journey begins at Zambezi Sands by Batoka, nestled along the majestic Zambezi River in Zimbabwe. Here, guests enjoy exclusive river views, guided game drives, and authentic cultural encounters, all within a setting of luxurious tented suites complete with private pools.

From there, the experience shifts to a more reflective pace at Sanctuary Mandela in Johannesburg. Once the private residence of Nelson Mandela, this intimate boutique hotel in Houghton offers a deeply meaningful stay. Surrounded by tranquil gardens and thoughtfully curated heritage spaces, the property honours Madiba's legacy through mindful design, curated exhibits, and serene retreat areas, creating space for reflection, connection, and quiet inspiration in the heart of the city.

The itinerary then continues to Boschendal Wine Estate in Franschhoek, where guests indulge in world-class wine tastings, farm-to-table dining, and the timeless charm of a beautifully preserved estate set among rolling vineyards and orchards.

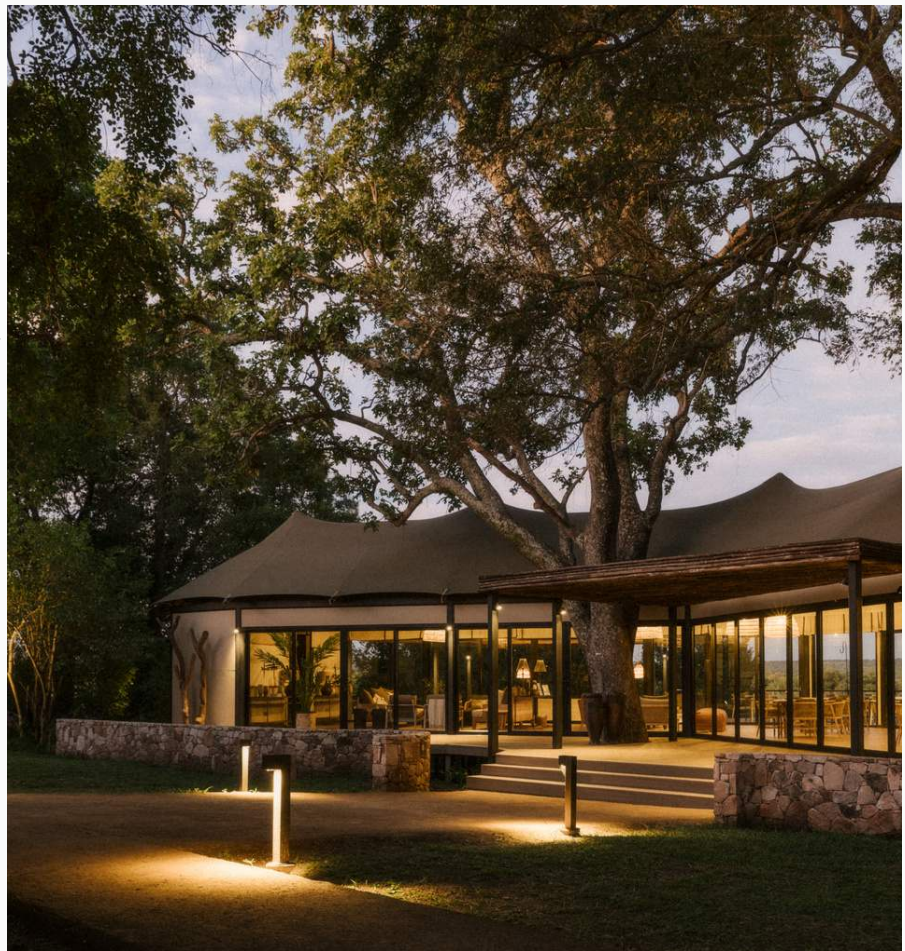

Together, these destinations create a seamless blend of adventure, heritage, luxury, and cultural immersion — promising an unforgettable Southern African escape.

Location - Set in Nelson Mandela's former residence in the leafy suburb of Houghton, Johannesburg, Sanctuary Mandela incorporates elements of the home where Madiba lived after Robben Island and which later became the Nelson Mandela Foundation's headquarters. Now a re-envisioned boutique hotel,

Accommodation - 9 curated rooms and retreat spaces designed for reflection, healing, and thought-provoking experiences inspired by Mandela's life and legacy.

Includes - Breakfast Daily - In room service, Aircon in all rooms - Wifi - DSTV in all rooms - Solar Energy & Heritage house tour

Excludes - DBB and in-room maxi bar apply only to the Presidential room; all other rooms are BB only.

Highlights - A piece of history in "Mr President," a unique and exclusive room located within the former residence of Nelson Mandela during a significant period of his life. From 1992 to 1998, this house served as his home after his release from prison, and later became the headquarters of the Nelson Mandela Foundation.

Dining like Madiba - In Nelson Mandela's household, food was about tradition, family, home, sharing, and enjoying meals with those he loved. In memory of his love for food, our 50-seater contemporary dining restaurant serves as a tribute to his favourite dishes — warm, comforting, and rooted in heritage. Each meal tells a story, honouring the flavours Madiba cherished and the spirit of togetherness he valued around the table.
